Mississippi Code Annotated 97-33-307 (6) Each applicant for licensure as a fantasy contest operator shall pay an application fee of Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00). A license is valid for three years.

Investigative fees for individual applicants associated with the entity will be determined after the application is received and reviewed. Any such fees will be estimated and provided to the applicant before the investigation begins.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- An applicant for a license as a Fantasy Contest Operator is seeking the granting of a privilege. The burden of proving qualifications for such a permit is at ALL times on you, the applicant. You must fully cooperate with the investigation and promptly supply all information requested of you.
- Applications that are incomplete or otherwise deficient will be returned to you. No further action will be taken on your application until you re-submit a correctly completed application.
- You may also be required to file a Multi Jurisdictional Gaming Application at any time after filing this application. If you are notified to file a Multi Jurisdictional application, you will be required to pay additional investigative fees.
- The background investigation typically takes no less than three (3) months to complete and is necessary for a license to be issued or renewed.
